

Just To Make You Happy

28 Days

I can not hang onto this bullshit forever
Can you?
If you can that's up to you

We are so foolish all this coolness can be fickle
Lacking in foundation and I'm quickly losing patience
I'm jaded just like you
And if you want me to
I'll show you all of my bank statements
Just got off the welfare payments

I'm not going back to having nothing
Just to make you happy, just to make you happy
I don't want to be the one who tells you what you want to hear
I don't want to be the one

I do this for the love of it
While jealous people email bullshit
But it's o.k.
We get to play our songs and we've done nothing wrong
So sit at your computer screen
Think of something safe and mean
