

Turned on the tv screen and what did I see a video collage of our atrocities turtles getting cut open by poachers knife how can I just look at that and not change my life

sometimes my life is so lucky and sometimes its not I'm lucky enough to do something more something else I saw that made me want to boff

it was a video of an elephants tusk while they were chopping it off why do us human beings have to wreck everything without a fuckin thought of the pain, yeah that it brings yeah that it brings, yeah that it brings yeah that it brings

brings brings brings
that it brings
brings brings brings
yes of the pain that it brings
yeah that it brings
