

Nobody's In Love

2AM Club

She took control, pushed me on the wall
Took me in the stall told me give me what I want
I just cant, okay I just might
I'm just saying, she hit the bathroom lights

Pressed her hands up on the tiles like ahh
Put her skirt in my hands and told me just watch
High heel walk through a spilled drink floor
Can't tell what I want but I think it's more

So I wait for your eyes, I was reading your plays
Put a light to my smoke with a shotgun kiss find your lips through the haze
With a twist in my glass baby and you whisper your name
Don't worry the sun don't concern me the flame is a one night thing

(x2) Baby loving the way u take me
Nobody here's gone break me
Nobody here's in love

She took her clothes put them on hold
Saw an X on her hand she's looking for the soap
First I wouldn't go, now I'm in the cold
Parking garage with her hands on my soul

Oh no I'm going home
Her vicious lips feel like a razor blade poem
Razor blade eyes tan colored thighs
A girl with a spine and a man on the side

So I wait for your eyes I was reading your plays
Put a light to my smoke with a shotgun kiss find your lips through the haze
With a twist in my glass baby and you whisper your name
Don't worry the sun don't concern me the flame is a one night thing

(x4) Baby loving the way u take me
Nobody here's gone break me
Nobody here's in love

Calling all the lovers, late night under covers you too
(I believe in the night I'm leaving when I like)
Raise your cups and glasses, hope for real romance to come true
(Make a toast to the vandals, make the most of your love for the scandal)
But put your thoughts together, love don't equal pleasure every night
(She equals risk, take that arrow, please don't miss)
I'm not knowing better, just admit your game ain't quite right
(We all fall for the same tricks, let the music play and let me say this)

(x3) Baby loving the way u take me
Nobody here's gone break me
Nobody here's in love
