

Reach Down Deep

2AM Club

Woman these games you play
It ain't new to me
You wanna test your man
Even when you believe
All of them times I lied
I made up for them now
You wanna work this out
Well you better show me how

This time baby You better reach down deep
Cuz I ain't gon' cry when you come up short for me

Woman this love affair
Would leave some in the dark
But I'm not a stranger here
It's a walk in the park
You wanna run around
Well go right ahead
The ball is in your court now
The crown is on your head

This time baby You better reach down deep
Cuz I ain't gon' cry When you come up short for me

Now I been waiting so long
But I've been strong I've been doing everything that I want
And you've been gone, the only place you are is my songs
But I ain't tripping I've been busy with the life that I want
So turn me on, give me something sexy and grown
And give it all, you really want half of the throne
Let's make a home, you gotta be passionate though
Come out of your glass house baby, put down the stones

This time baby you better reach down deep
Cuz I ain't gon' cry when you come up short for me
