La La La...

We met on the path to our dream
Now moving towards our own destinies

Taking a breather once awhile
Reminiscing of your lingering smile

Yearning but can't meet time will make
Our love stronger, believing in our dream
FOREVER

The light kiss we shared to
The lone memories in the night now
Hurting yet loving with so much warmth

Beneath the same sky, because of you
Everyday of my life is with brimming with bright cheer

Hiding the tears of separation with a smile
I will see you

Please wait for me

Yearning but can't meet time will make
Our love stronger, now please believe

As our paths come to a full circle, we will meet once again
Always believing in your Love
FOREVER (backvocal: Junho)
