

Go Back

2PM

The words "I love you" don't really come to me anymore
Kissing you doesn't make my heart rush anymore (oh no)

We're both really tired (don't want to understand)
Even when I go to you, you back away (why are you like this)
As I saw you changing (I resented you) so

Just erase me for today, baby just let me go
I long for a heart rush that's not from you, I need somebody to love

I wanna go back, I'm sorry, at this moment
I wanna go back, I wanna go back to the times before I knew you

I think we will dry up little by little like this Feels like I'm walking among the faint fog

We're both really tired
Even when we're together, we don't say a word, why are we like this?
As I saw myself changing, I resented myself so

Just erase me for today, baby just let me go
I long for a heart rush that's not from you, I need somebody to
love

I wanna go back, I'm sorry, at this moment
I wanna go back, I wanna go back to the times before I knew you

I wanna go back, I wanna go back, I wanna go back Baby just let me go like this

I'm not the person you want right now
I'm suffocating and drying up
Now our love is just a memory
I want to go back to the times before I knew you
To the times when my heart rushed over new people
I'm sorry but I want to be happy
I wanna go back

Just erase me for today, baby just let me go
I long for a heart rush that's not from you, I need somebody to
love

I wanna go back, I'm sorry, at this moment
I wanna go back, I wanna go back to the times before I knew you
