

Love Is a Lie

3 Doors Down

Said you wanted to feel beautiful
Did I've ever tell you differently
I tried to give you all that you deserved
And never mind the things you said to me

Along the way I didn't say
All they things i felt inside myself
You took away from was mine
And in you gave in someone else

You said you only one enough you loving is enough
So soon you said goodbye
Look it bye, I'm living my and me
All I can see, I can't see love is alive

Everybody tell me almost crazy
But you tell me to live your life
Cause is over may you love mine save me
But I thing I got a thousand times

I never knew to side of view
They side of wish I have never seen
Soon in never I gues on discover
I had a lover I could be so me

You said you only one enough you loving is enough
So soon you said goodbye
Look it bye, I'm living my and me
All I can see, I can't see love is alive

You said you only one enough you loving is enough
So soon you said goodbye
Look it bye, I'm living my and me
All I can see, I can't see love is alive

Said you won't you so beautiful
Did I've ever tell you differently
I tried to give you deserved
And I've mine things you said

You said you only one enough you loving is enough
So soon you said goodbye
Look it bye, I'm living my and me
All I can see, I can't see love is alive

You said you only one enough you loving is enough
So soon you said goodbye
Look it bye, I'm living my and me
All I can see, I can't see love is alive
