Who Are You

3 Doors Down

You're not what I need anymore Forget those games you're playin' You're not what I need anymore I can't hear what you're saying

If you won't listen to me
How can you tell me how I feel?
All along I told you
That I cannot feel the pain

Who are you to tell me I'm not good enough? All I've ever wanted was a place inside of you

Why should I hear what you say any longer? When you don't even know where I've been I feel something in me getting stronger And I won't get kicked around again

If you won't listen to me
How can you tell me how I feel?
All along I told you
That I cannot feel the pain

Who are you to tell me I'm not good enough? All I've ever wanted was a place inside of you

If you won't listen to me
How can you tell me how I feel?
All along I told you
That I cannot feel the pain

Who are you to tell me I'm not good enough? All I've ever wanted was a place inside of you

You're not what I need anymore!
