

Alone in the dark

3 Feet Smaller

Afraid of the dark a sunny day, what a beautiful art I can't survive
the night's haunting me, I'm sweating I can't sleep, can't dream, can't breath help me

curse me, kill me just don't leave me alone in dark it's haunting me down what can I lose, what can I prove?

I didn't mention anything
But it meant everything I'm sure it's not going away by yelling it's OK
