

Faintheart

3 Feet Smaller

Make me harder than a coffin nail
Throw my chest against the wall
Take my braveness / Check it off as failed
Let me bleed inside your hall
Cuz you want this
All of this will pass me by
Take another great mistake
Make it better as we speak
All you bawl is "You are all alone"
Call me faintheart, call me what you want
I can't waste another day for you
Can't stand the agony you put me through
I won't share with you
Except for my mistakes
