

Lie Baby, Lie

3 Feet Smaller

The Truth hurts more than a lie
Here is my alibi
I'm an honest guy and that was another lie
I'm trying not to laugh
When I beautify my past
This might cost me reliance
but I'm alright
Everthing that comes out
Out of my mouth is shit
I'm a trustable man
You need to get along with it
I'm trying not to laugh
When I beautify my past
This might cost me reliance
but I'm alright
I'm sorry baby
You believed in everything I say'd Come up with a lie and you'll see that it's alright Sometimes it's better to shut your mouth and listen up Your life is boring so think of something Just try not to laugh
When you beautify your past This might cost you reliance but you're alright
