30 Seconds To Mars

There was truth There was consequence Against you, a weak defense Then there's me, I'm seventeen Looking for a fight All my life I was never there Just a ghost running scared Here our dreams aren't made-They're won. Lost in the city of angels Down in the comfort of strangers I found myself in the fire burned hills In the land of a billion lights Bought my fate straight from hell Second sight has paid off well For a mother, a brother and me The silver of a lake at night The hills of Hollywood on fire A boulevard of hope and dreams Streets made of desire Lost in the city of angels Down in the comfort of strangers I found myself in the fire burned hills In the land of a billion lights I found myself in the fire burned hills In the land of a billion lights (Of a billion lights, of a billion lights, of a billion lights...) Angels Angels I am home, home, home, home Lost in the city of angels Down in the comfort of strangers I found myself in the fire burned hills In the land of a billion lights One life, one love live One life, one love live One life, one love live One life, one love The city of angels The city of angels The city of angels The city of angels
