

Come ah come ah come ah
Come find me
When the blush of the evening blooms
And all the colors that we dream vast
That once appear and dress the moon

I know
There's one thing I know
And I will tell ya'
I know
There's one thing I know
And I will tell ya'

Suppose you wake up
Tomorrow morning
See how everything
Connects to you

Alright now
Come ah come ah come ah
Come tell me
How hapless sleepless are the blueish light
Connecting you to your dream body
Connecting you to electric light

I know
There's one thing I know
And I will tell ya'
I know
There's one thing I know
And I will tell ya'

Suppose you wake up
Tomorrow morning
See everything
Connects to you
Someday
You'll wake
Realize everything connects to you
