The Quickening

Do you ever get to thinking Thinking about Thinking about time All the past times underground Shifting around Shifting around I telling ya' say I don't wanna close it The universe is I wish will be no implosion Tell them When the waters come on flowin' We will be one We'll be transcended Soon will come a day in the near future, whoa Not but told by your TV or your newspaper Will be a lesson In real impression Not Armageddon But color calling Come on, hey It's quickening You can feel it Make sure you do the right thing And just remember the truth might make you hard You feel the vibration Did you ever get to thinking About memory Deep memory Prophecy left by the Mayan and the Hopi Hopi I tell what they say We are in the fourth war And close to approaching the end of a cycle I tell you If we don't heed the signs We'll be end times We'll be end times Soon will come a day in the near future, whoa Not but told by your TV or your newspaper Can't for accepting Whatever love means Let love guard you And your family Come on, hey It's quickening You can feel it Make sure you do the right thing And just remember the truth might make you hard You feel the vibration
