

He was a king 'til she laid waste now he can not fill up the space and I just see him drifting while he's drifting on bourbon alley, feeling low just because she let him go I don't think he even knows he'll ever be fine

And he's got a head full of ideas let me tell ya, that you wouldn't believe and he's got a heart made of pure gold and something else, many tricks up his sleeve you might think he's a jester because he'll make you laugh til' you cry and what else, you better come with your best if you test him, unless you're ready to die

Wonder woman got rid of wonder man that man's not part of your wonder plan letter to the so called better bet on my man believe it you will find out baby, damn

Head full of ideas
and something else, so many tricks up his sleeve
if you test him, unless you're ready to die

A million people come and go through a persons ebb and flow and faces keep on changing while there changing a certain few will stay in tact when they're not they'll don an act I know this important fact don't get confused like

And he's got a head full of ideas

First you love him then your loving him not all the while he just smiles, giving all that he's got do you find it in your heart to say he's not what you sought do you want me to continue with this, or what woahohohohohohohoooh yeah

woahohohohohohohoooh yeah

Head full of ideas
sleeve, sleeve
