

Never Even There

32 Leaves

Sunrise to another day
Let indifference pass me by
I say if everyday is the same
Why fall a sleep to wake up screaming

We are not the same
We're not to blame
The sun was
Never even there
Try to understand
Try if you can
The sun was
Never even there

No surprise you couldn't save the day
Even God's not on my side
But I hold on still to the hope you will
Be gone when I awake from dreaming

I waited so long for a new day to come
But no sun rises
