

Pieces of you, spread all over, torn in two
Forward/backward

Save yourself, from nothing, from no one
Forward/backward

You better get yourself out of it
You better get yourself out of it

You think you're right but it ain't right
You think it's right but it ain't right

Cease the slide, use the talent God gave you
Forward/backward

You better get yourself out of it
You better get yourself out of it

You think you're right, but it ain't right
You think it's right, but it ain't right
