

One More Word

36 Crazyfists

Spill it all over, just like you used to Reason to be strong
But you don't like me, but you don't even know me
I will save me, I will save me

Please fight for me

Shut down in another light, in a hole not yet sewn
Words that make you sickened inside
But you're sucked down in a steady strife and you bleed without halo
I can tell now, I can tell now

Please fight for me

Shut down you don't know us all
Shut down you don't know us all
Shut down you don't know us all
Shut down
It's all inside, so far
It's all inside

One more word, I'm asking you to come and get it

You don't want to wake up and kiss it goodbye

Please fight for me

Shut down you don't know us all
Shut down you don't know us all
Shut down you don't know us all
Shut down
It's all inside, so far
It's all inside, so far
