

Just Can't Leave You Alone

.38 Special

Stopped by your house, they said you weren't home
But maybe they lied
I would have known if you had come or gone
Cause I stood by your gate two days in a row
Finally left you a note
Said I remember how you smiled at me
And how you picked me out of the crowd
It's funny how the guy next to me swore that it was him you singled out.

Wherever you go, I'll follow
'cause I'll never leave you alone
To the ends of the earth, I'll follow
'cause I just can't leave you alone.

You play hard to get, got me climbin' the walls
And I took the fall
And got chased by your security dog
If I change my look, maybe then you would see
Maybe you'd notice me
I'll become whatever you want me to be
I know someday I'll be your guest
All my friends say I'm crazy
The man from the magazine says I'm obsessed

You may think I'm extreme
But you sang to me 'live out your dream'
So I can't let you slip away now
If my dreams die, then I die
And I know someday, somehow

I know someday I'll be your guest, yeah
All my friends say I'm crazy
The man from the magazine says I'm obsessed

[Repeat Chorus]
