

Crazy

3LW

I don't apologize
But i have compromised
Myself and another guy
It's you that I'm talkin bout
Been with him for years
But baby you
I must be crazy

I want you for my own
You been with her so long
She never done you wrong
And she's so nice to me
We should have never touched
Cause now were in love
We must be crazy

You got a girl, I got a man but I can't lie (I can't lie)
I wanna leave him when I look into your eyes (Your eyes)
You never thought that holding me would change your life (Your life)
I guess that just this once two wrongs can make a right (Two wrongs make a r ight)

It's something that I can't help
My heart wants someone else
There's nothing that I can do
Never thought it would be you
You say you're not afraid
Although listen to you
You must be crazy

It's too late to turn back now
I'm afraid we don't know how Baby keep your faith in me
I'll never let you down
It's funny how we both know how
There's no one else for us
It's crazy

You got a girl, I got a man but I can't lie (I can't lie)
I wanna leave him when I look into your eyes (Your eyes)
You never thought that holding me would change your life (Your life)
I guess that just this once two wrongs can make a right (Two wrongs make a r ight)

I've been dreamin' (Baby I've been dreamin')
Baby you and I just leavin' (Just you and I)
All of this behind
Hit the bank and get enough
Pack our bags baby lets go (Lets go)
I just wanna be alone
You and I against the world

I've been dreamin' (Baby I've been dreamin')
Baby you and I just leavin' (Just leavin' leavin' leavin')
All of this behind (Behind)
Hit the bank and get enough

Pack our bags baby lets go (baby lets go)
I just wanna be alone
You and i against the world
Baby
