

Mary's House

4 Non Blondes

Fried my brain before my time.
Looked around at all the beautiful people.
And then my arm turned red...
And all I saw was my blood just rush away.
Hid the needle with a smiling face.
Going down just to find my mind...
To lose it in a pile of waste.

Went on down to a merry-go-round.
Chased myself into a vertical hideaway.
And then I fell to the ground.
Someone, please, please,
Take me back to Mary's house...
To push it with a needle again
Don't tell my momma...
She was my only friend

Let me out...
I want out of here.
I refuse to break my hands again.
My best friend is an emergency.
And its Mary's fault..
That's what she said.

Plenty of nights of knotting pain.
Take a drink and help me anyone.
Oh I have lost all shame.
Was it fun?
Who will take me back to Mary's house?
To push it with a needle again.
Don't tell my momma..
She wouldn't understand.

Let me out...
I want out of here.
I refuse to break my hands again.
My best friend is an emergency.
And its Mary's fault...
That's what she said.

I am Mary's house.
I beg you to stay.
I am Mary's house.
I beg you to stay.
I am Mary's house.
I beg you to stay.
