

Train

4 Non Blondes

What ya gonna do child when your thoughts are movin' slow find another to show you where to go you'll be searchin' for that train and you'll see it's a train
when your mommy goes away she won't take you she'll leave you astray
and you see yourself
searchin' for somebody else
but you know for sure it's that train What ya gonna do child
when you leave it all behind find another, to blow it in your mind
and you'll see it's a train
