

My Name Is Vengeance

40 Below Summer

Scorned, hated, fighting the urge
No more
I've given my pound of flesh
At least I have a purpose
It's putting you to rest
No, it's just the beginning
For what you've done to me
I will allow you to leave only after you fucking bleed

This is retaliation
Hell bent determination
Now you have become a demonstration
Not to fuck with me or you'll end up in your final destination

This heart of gold inside my chest has been ripped out
And melted purely for your profit
I exist only now to hear your whimmer
Because your pain is my pleasure

Destroy, foundations that make no sense
Without your fucking order
Without your filthy stench
No, there is no forgiveness
For what you've done to me
I'll never allow you to leave
My name is vengeance on thee
Invaded this is unleashed
My name is vengeance on thee

You can never repay it
Because my name is vengeance
And I will never believe

This is retaliation
Hell bent determination
Now you have become a demonstration
Not to fuck with me or you'll end up in your final destination

Im like a dog with a fucking bone
And I can't let go (for nothing)
Im gonna cut you and watch you die
And then drink your blood (I'll watch you die)
There is nothing but the blinding fury of a thousand suns (exploding)
Or a bullet in the chamber of this loaded gun (I will release)
I spent a life time loving you
And in the blink of an eye I want you dead
I'm gonna open the casket and bury the hatchet
Now I thought I'd take your fucking head
You asked for this
Now you're getting it
Now you're lost and you'll never be found
There is only one way it ends
Me stuffing you six feet in the ground

This is retaliation
Hell bent determination
Now you have become a demonstration

Not to fuck with me or you'll end up in your final destination
