Signs and Wonders

We don't need a psychic line To tell us what is on your mind We don't need to search for what is Hidden in the stars We don't need a horoscope To bring us life to give us hope You are God So we just need to trust In who You are You sent love to live in us, So we just need to trust The signs and wonders of the heart

You light the dark You are Truth in love So we just need to trust The signs and wonders of the heart

We don't need a clever scheme, Political positioning We don't need a guru On the outside looking in We don't need an alibi To justify our place in life You are in control, The means will justify the end You sent love to live in us, So we just need to trust the signs and wonders of the heart

You sent love to live in us, So we just need to trust The signs and wonders of the heart
