

I chase the echoes of your voice
So distracted by the noise
Try to keep up your silhouette
I follow while you take the lead
A little guidance is all I need
A lesson that I will not forget

I know you'll always walk with me
Even in my darkest hour, you still comfort me
My shelter, my protection, my light
My friend and my direction
My guide
You are the reason why I make it through the day
You guard me through the wilderness
You build the bridges I can cross
Without your love I would be lost!
You're the strength and the everything to me

I know you'll always walk with me
Even in my darkest hour, you still comfort me
My shelter, my protection, my light
My friend and my direction
My guide

I know you'll always walk with me
Even in my darkest hour, you still comfort me
My shelter, my protection, my light
My friend and my direction
My guide
