

Dissonant Hearts

4th Dimension

Out of pitch-black darkness
A lonely dove
Her silhouette on the horizon
Love brings white pale dawn...

Red-blood-stained skies mirror
Our flame within
Oh sweet naivety of youth, we swore
Those skies we'd reach...

Lost in my lone reverie
Many a night I've been waiting
Oh Lady, you would come to me...

Time let us down, witnessed
Our last goodbye
There's a price we all pay
Our prize, longed piece of mind...

Gathering darkness bodes
A dark romance
When the roar shatters still
Hearts will mourn their past chance

Lost in my lone reverie
Many a night I've been waiting
Oh Lady, you would come to me...
I talked to the stars, cursed the moon
White Deceiver
Fair grace haunts my dreams
Cruel silence ails me...

Lost in my lone reverie
Many a night I've been waiting
Oh Lady, you would come to me...
Waned have the stars, and so the moon
White Deceiver
Oblivion engulfed
Our dissonant hearts...
