

Not far there lies a future, we're reaching an end
A breakthrough in culture, religion and self...
Don't fall to the illusion, the world's about to change
Behind the curtain, light is flooding the stage
Crossing the gates of our minds
Spreading towards all the Suns...

Light, awaken inside us
Breath of mankind's mind's I
Tide of love overwhelming
Chord of blessed truth divine
At the dawn of the new morn
We'll shed our fears
Open our hearts and dance...

Collective awareness means identity
A new order's beginning, abandon yourself and be free...

Trust, road's been paved for us all
Feel, love is stirring our souls
Energy's building inside, matter and spirit unite...

Light, awaken inside us
Breath of mankind's mind's I
Tide of love overwhelming
Chord of blessed truth divine
At the dawn of the new morn
We'll shed our fears
Open our hearts and dance...

Join in the dance of infinite wisdom
Leap to a new age and rejoice...
