

El Dorado

50 Foot Wave

Peace and a fraction of a dream, El Dorado
These eggs look like eyeballs and I'm too bored to eat
We're floating on inflatable hope
There's a blue blizzard in our heads and I'm too sore to sleep

Life and a cup of instant chaos by the window
I'm laughing so hard, I'm in tears
I followed your hillbilly guide to El Dorado
I haven't laughed like this in years

I'd like you to stay
I'd like you to stay
I'd like you to stay
I'd like you to stay

Only you can see, Eden through the blizzard
Only you spring eternal censor free
Only you are Minnie Pearl behind the 8 ball
The keeper of my pathetic dream

I'd like you to stay
I'd like you to stay
I'd like you to stay
I'd like you to stay
