El Dorado

50 Foot Wave

Peace and a fraction of a dream, El Dorado These eggs look like eyeballs and I'm too bored to eat We're floating on inflatable hope There's a blue blizzard in our heads and I'm too sore to sleep

Life and a cup of instant chaos by the window I'm laughing so hard, I'm in tears I followed your hillbilly guide to El Dorado I haven't laughed like this in years

I'd like you to stay I'd like you to stay I'd like you to stay I'd like you to stay

Only you can see, Eden through the blizzard Only you spring eternal censor free Only you are Minnie Pearl behind the 8 ball The keeper of my pathetic dream

I'd like you to stay I'd like you to stay I'd like you to stay I'd like you to stay
