

Redefine

50 Lions

Redefine,
I'm feeling these self destructive thoughts,
My sense of value and all my faults,
Self doubt grows inside,
I refuse to become a statistic,
A slave chained down by a mindset instilled in me,
Living through others that couldn't be,
It's been coming on for so long, feel it break,
It's always gonna be a matter of time till these thoughts can be mine,
