

Snakes

50 Lions

Nothings as it seems,
walked away from this,
with nothing,
nothing but ease,
taken for another ride,
played us for fools, one too many times,

no more second chances,
there'll be no crawling back,
another face another face well forget,
weed out the weak,
your time is running out.

these days you never know, who to hate and who to trust black clouds are closing in on you, straight ahead you can never stop, gotta fight, gotta take control,
make no mistake they're watching you,
cant sit back, cant walk away, gotta be the one who follows through.

take a closer look,
who can you trust,
WHO CAN YOU TRUST!
unmask the snakes,
unshake the hands,
before its too late,
take a closer look,
who can you trust,
