

Angel in My Bed

54-40

I don't know
What livin's for
I just go on
Through the door

I think that God
He has retired
And the devil he's still Tryin' hard

Because there's an angel
In my bed
Said she loves me
Loves me to death

What is wrong
What is right
This goes on
All my life

I think that heaven
Is for the birds
Hell is out there somewhere
Here on earth

Because there's an angel
In my bed
Said she loves me
Loves me to death

Lord I know
You don't care
But I think that maybe
Satan's deal is fair

Because there's an angel
In my bed
Said she loves me
Loves me to death

There's an angel
In my bed
Said she loves me
Loves me to death
