

I got a brand new saying for
I'm gonna go nowhere
I got a brand new tattoo
This is what it says

I, I, I love candy
I, I, I love candy

I got a brand new fish
I'm gonna ride my board
I never gonna give that dude a dime
'Cause I never will grow old

I, I, I love candy, oh whoa
I, I, I love candy
I still love candy
I still love candy

I love candy way too much
I can't help it if I die
I love candy way too much
I can't help it

I forget your name, I forget your game
I'm not really there
I don't know your face or where to place it
There's only one thing that I do know, and that's this

I, I, I love candy, oh whoa
I, I, I love candy
I, I, I love candy, oh whoa
I, I, I love candy

I still love candy
I still love candy
I still love candy
