

Gonna start dressing
Finer things
Maybe just nothing
Maybe just a dream

You are gonna find him one day knockin¹ at your door
He's not the hero any more
He says baby don't you want me in your life
You tell him what is wrong, not right

Don't She La
Don't she look happy
Don't She La
Don't she look happy

Gonna start living
Fantasy
Maybe just nothing
Maybe just a dream

Fire in the blue sky when he hits you in the mouth
This the war and not the warning
He says baby I love you won't you stay
You say good-bye to him too late

Don't She La
Don't she look happy
Don't She La
Don't she look happy
Don't she look happy now

That he's gone away from here
He's gone away he died they say an awful way
It was attack of the heart
You have started something big

By cuttin¹ through the man
There was a sign you heard a calling
He says baby I don't want to die today
You say so long man it's too late
