

You don't suppose he would seduce her
If he thought she would refuse it
She consented, too glad to breathe
But of course, it was Milly who screamed

She found out how love causes damage
Left with a package in her body
It's her body

She never meant to tell the father
What they never had was no longer here
Easy, baby, come, easy go, coat hanger
She wants to live in peace and not anger

But he found out that his work was cut
Out of her body (body, body, body)
It's her body (body, body, body)
It's her body and she has to do what she has to do
For her body (body, body)
For her body

Stick to Milly, don't let her fall (fall)
Stick to Milly, don't let her fall
Stick to Milly, don't let her fall
You don't suppose she'd refuse

If she thought they'd abuse her body (body, body, body)
It's her body (body, body, body)
It's her body and she has to do what she has to do
For her body (body, body)
For her body
YEAH!
