On, move on, they're gaining ground,
On, move on, they're gaining ground,
On, move on, they're gaining ground,
On, move on, they're gaining ground,
On, move on, they're gaining ground,
On, move on, they're gaining ground.

On, move on, they're gaining ground,
Into the light and the lost is found.
On, move on, they're gaining ground,
In our cities, in our towns,
On, move on, they're gaining ground.
Waiting with the lights turned down,
Into the light and the lost is found.

Pick this lock, this chandelier,
This chandelier, this chandelier,
This chandelier, this chandelier,

Pick this lock, this chandelier,
These microphones, these horses' teeth,
These suits and ties, these severed feet.

Pick-pick this lock, pick-pick this lock,
Pick-pick this lock, pick this lock,
Pick this lock, pick this lock,
Pick this lock, pick this lock, this-
Pick this lock, this-

Pick this lock, this chandelier,
These microphones, these horses' teeth..

On the run, they're gaining ground.
Dance among the horseman's crowds,
On the run, they're gaining ground.
In our cities, in our towns.
Waiting there with lights turned down.
Dance among the horseman's crowds.

On, hold on, the day is young,
The ration card, the scoured lung.
Up, wake up, the future's here,
The schools all closed, the roads all clear.
On, hold on, they're gaining ground,
On, hold on, they're gaining ground.
On, hold on, hold on, hold on...

On, hold on, the day is young,
The ration card, the scoured lung.
Up, wake up, the future's here,
The schools all closed, the roads all clear.

On, hold on, the day is young,
The ration card, the scoured lung.
Up, wake up, the future's here,
The schools all closed, the roads all clear.

On, hold on, they're gaining ground,
On, hold on, they're gaining ground.
