

Will You Be Ok?

702

Will you be okay,
If I go away?
I wish that I could stay,
Say you'll be okay.

Baby, I know that it hasn't been long,
And yet it seems our liking has grown,
Into love.
Baby, you know that we knew all along,
That in a little while I will be gone,
So I need to know,
If I go...

Baby, I can tell by the look in your eyes,
You're trying to hide what you're feeling inside,
But go on and cry.
Baby, I know I can't promise you when,
But we're gonna see each other again,
Until then,
I gotta know, will you be okay?

Believe me, I don't really wanna be leaving,
But you can always call me if you need me,
It'll be okay.
You know it doesn't really matter where I go,
'Cuz I'll be keeping you in my heart so,
You're never far away.
