

Planet Earth

77 Bombay Street

Two days left to stay, I travel all around the world
I'm on my own and I don't feel like going home
Too bad my buddy left me the other day for his work
But I am staying here, I feel like captain kirk

Hey planet earth, thank you for carrying me
Thank you for showing me your pretty pearls
Hey planet earth, you look so beautiful in blue
I have to say hello my love, how are you

Well now it's not too bad I'm better off on my own
I'll do whatever I want and fly from town to town
And when that day will come, I finally have to go back home
I remember everything I've done cause I had so much fun

Hey planet earth, thank you for carrying me
Thank you for showing me your pretty pearls
Hey planet earth, you look so beautiful in blue
I have to say hello my love, how are you

I'm travelling around naked foot
I don't know where I'm sleeping and I don't know what to cook
I'm looking down a sea so blue
The desert isn't dry when I think of you
I climb on trees like avatar
I don't know where I'm sleeping, I'm high above
I feel so free in my heart and soul
I think I'm never going home

I've been to Adelaide to Melbourne to Sydney and Cairns
All around Australia without any plans
To Canada through Panama to Cuba, Peru
Haiti to Thailand, El Salvador too
To Chile, Brazil, Morocco, Guam
Honduras, Bahamas, Barbados, Sudan
Tortuga, Japan, China, Vietnam
I've been everywhere
Cause I am a travelling man

Hey planet earth, thank you for carrying me
Thank you for showing me your pretty pearls
Hey planet earth, you look so beautiful in blue
I have to say hello my love, how are you
(2x)

How are you...
