

The Weight Of The World

7Days

You cannot see what I can see
So deep within a reflection of sin

You will not be the one to see
And be in a place in judgment of me

The bringer of lies
Always beside me
You tell me to go all the way
Deceit in your eyes
How I defy you
I'm telling you to keep your distance

Dreaming
In darkness weeping
I see him reaching
I'm losing the grip
Forgetting
The hand that guides me
The world will die
If I let go of his hand

I tread your ground 'cause you tread mine
And you will pay 'cause that is what my God says

You tell me lies you bring me sorrow
Now I defy what you justify

Dreaming
In darkness weeping
I see him reaching
I'm losing the grip
Forgetting
The hand that guides me
The world will die
If I let go of his hand

What is this dream
That is haunting my sleep at night
What's this feeling,
The weight of the world

Help me to move forward
Reaching the other side
What's this feeling,
The weight of the world
