

Where Are You

7Days

Always seen what I can be
Always known how to be free
Never dared o be the one
Who takes the lead to carry on

And I just cannot let go
Even though I know so well

If I dwell the depths of the sea
Your light would still reach me

Where are you?
Where are you now?
Leaving me be
You reign I can't see
Where are you?
Where are you now?
Forgive me this once
But I cannot see

And so we close our eyes
Cause we don't want to see anymore
All the pain that we bring
It's time now to heed the call

And we just cannot let go
Even though we know so well

If we dwell the depths of the sea
Your light would still reach us

Where are you?
Where are you now?
Leaving me be
Your reign I can't see
Where are you?
Where are you now?
Forgive me this once
But I cannot see

Help us to face the truth
Show us the secret of your reign
Open our eyes
Let us understand the mystery of your kingdom
