

The One I'm Running To

7eventh Time Down

Midnight
Staring at the bills and rubbing
Red eyes
Ain't adding up to nothing but some hard times
He's feeling like a failure in life

Head down
Part of him is tempted just to Skip town
But deep inside he knows enough to cry out
God I'm tired of fighting this fight

I'm running low on faith but I won't run away

Tonight I'm gonna fix my eyes
On the only Hope who satisfies my heart
You are the One I'm running to
Everything that's good and right and true
Jesus, I'm coming after who
You are, you are
the One I'm running to

Late Shift
She's working hard providing
For her three kids
She hasn't seen her husband cause
Their stretched thin
Nobody told her it would be this hard
There's no end in sight, but she says
No compromise

Tonight I'm gonna fix my eyes
On the only Hope who satisfies my heart
You are the One I'm running to
Everything that's good and right and true
Jesus, I'm coming after who
You are, you are
the One I'm running to

So much I don't understand
In the middle of this circumstance
But I know my life is in Your Hands

Tonight I'm gonna fix my eyes
On the only Hope who satisfies, my heart
You are the One I'm running to
Everything that's good and right and true
Jesus, I'm coming after who
You are, you are
the One I'm running to
