

Before Your Suffering

8 Foot Sativa

It's like a walk in the dark
And then there's one remark and knowing that you're gona die
Someone behind is gona take your life
And you keep wondering why, why

Sometimes you'll see yourself by yourself with yourself
Trapped in an empty cage
While all of the time there's someone looking over you
Watching you suffering why, why

Before your suffering

You take into mind that no-one can hear your cries
So let them just take your life
You're facing the near end
No-one can stop this
You're suffering and wondering why, why
