

Don't talk to me about selling out cause I won't be listening You're just another jaded kid who doesn't see I'm making money that's quickly spent I've got a family you ain't gotta worry 'bout the rent

Is it too much to ask do me a favor close that punk rock rulebo
ok
Cause times have changed and so have I, I need to get by Don't think I'd blindly take this all, without asking questions
You've waited years for me to fall, and I'm still here

You think you're clever, what do you know
The punk band wagon's taken you where you don't want to go
Is it too much to ask, do me a favor close the punk rock rulebo
ok

'Cause times have changed and so have I, I need to get by
Is it too much to ask, do me a favor close that punk rock ruleb ook
Cause times have changed and so have I, I need to get by, good bye
