

Should've Been the One

911

My baby, should've been the one
Last night I was so scared
I couldn't close my eyes
You still live in me
Somehow I made it through the night
Rescued by the break of day, once again

I know someone's in your heart
It's pulling me apart
But I guess I'm the one to blame (it's so hard)
And it's so hard (so hard)
Holding back the tears now you've disappeared
How I long to hold you near

Oh I should've been the one who's with you now
Should've been the one that's feeling proud
I failed you now
Oh I should've read the signs in your eyes
Should've had the sense to realise
I've lost you now

I see you laughing out loud
Standing in a crowd
The same crowd I used to know
But it's too late now to change anything
I've lost everything
Gotta learn to let you go

Oh I should've been the one who's with you now
Should've been the one that's feeling proud
I failed you now
Oh I should've read the signs in your eyes
Should've had the sense to realise
I've lost you now

I should've been the light in your eyes (should've been the light)
Should've been the fire in your smile (should've been the fire)
I should've been your spirit and your guide

I wonder do you think of me? (do you think of me?)
Maybe you shed a tear for me (shed a tear for me)
I realise I paid the price
But nothing's gonna change the way I feel for you

Oh I should've been the one who's with you now
Should've been the one that's feeling proud
Girl I've failed you now

Should've read the signs in your eyes
Should've had the sense to realise
I've lost you now
I know I let you down baby
Had to fool around
Oh I should've been the one who's with you now
Should've been the one that's feeling proud
I failed you now
I should've read the signs baby

Should've realised
Oh I should've read the signs in your eyes
Should've had the sense to realise
I've lost you now
