

Dreaming of you
Every single day and every single night of my life
But someone else is holding you tight
So I'll see you in my dreams girl

Have you ever wanted someone so bad
That you really didn't care if they had Any idea how you feel (cause your dreams are so real)

Please help me
(to understand this feeling)
I'm dreaming (your body so appealing)
You're committed to someone else
But here in my mind, I have you all to myself

I know how your lips taste and feel though I've never kissed them for real so I find myself drifting away
(to my secret place)

Now I lay me down to sleep
I pray the lord, you're in my dreams
But you're committed to someone else
But here in my mind,
I have you all to myself
