

All my life I've been searching for Something right
A quick fix to help ease the pain
A remedy to make life more sane
Like Novocaine

All this time what I've been looking for
Has been right before my eyes
Everything I've ever wanted is already mine

You're the reason I feel so alive
True what I think about you
You're the reason I thrive
Everything I ever say or do
Oh yes I gladly would die
Take a bullet for you

I feel you in every breath in every Single move
It's as if you're a part of me
Synchronization of our heartbeats
Makes me complete

Talk to me
It's such a pleasure to hear you say
My name
Walk with me
It's so much an honor to stand by your side

You're the reason I feel so alive
True what I think about you
You're the reason I thrive
Everything I ever say or do
Oh yes I gladly would die
Take a bullet for you

All this time like a martyr for a lost cause
You are the perfect reason to die for Everything I'll ever say
Everything I'll ever do
One thing that I know
I'll take a bullet for you
