

Condition Critical its getting physical
Why does it have to be this way
You think you have a droit license to exploit
Authoritative right of way
We won't stay frozen by the oncoming headlights
We won't be beaten inside out by parasites

You taunt us and we will fight back
Don't think were scared of you and will not react
Count on a counterattack
I promise if you hit us we will hit you back

If what goes around always goes around
The circles nearly complete
As we bid adieu a little gift for you
Our reciprocity
Eye for an eye Hand to hand We see your jibes
And raise you our clenched fists
If you steal our daily bread
We'll make sure you choke on it

We won't be intimidated by half-wits and idiots
We won't be charmed by any two-face hypocrites
We know how you think
You underestimate us
Push us past the brink
And we'll be sure to take you down with us
Sorry folks the party's over
Parting gifts are at the door
The culprits have been unmasked
You hit us we'll hit you back
