

Uh

Yeah I confess, father I confess

Cause I've been living wrong, I know I've been blessed

I-I had 1000 second chances, how many left?

I-I-I-I-I've been sinnin lately, what do you suggest?

(what should I do?)

I want 999 more Hail Marys right now (right now)

I want 999 more Hail Marys right now (Hail Marys right now)

I want 999 more Hail Marys right now (Hail Marys right now)

But don't try to turn that number upside down (upside down)

There's no chance in hell that I'll make it to heaven

The deadliest sins i committed? All 7

Gluttony, Lust, Envy and Greed, I've done em all

(you forgettin 3)

I was gone get to them, you just help demonstrate how impossible repentance would be

I don't think that I'm worthy of forgiveness

I think that I'm already sentenced

How is it that I commit all the sins that I do and see no consequences

Father forgive me for asking this:

How can I ever go back from this?

It's not like the shit I was doing was simply a fluke or an accident

Cause I've been deliberately sinning again and again I can not repent

Impossible not to give into living in such an environment
