

Nobody knows nobody cares
You always give as what you get
And never think of what you must forget
Your back street semi sweet carry on the good work

Nobody knows nobody cares
They fight to win but always lose
Regrets will follow it's headline news
A sin to win now what's the point of living

Nobody knows nobody cares
Nobidy cares nobody tries oh no

Nobody knows nobody cares
A fall down this games confused
Its gone too far now we're not amused
Your back street semi sweet carry on the Good work
