

Get your seat by the window
Watch the scape goats come one by one
Sit tight the picture repeats itself
Only the cast they're not the same

So beware the silent anger
If it's not there it's everywhere
Watch out for silent anger
If it's not there it's everywhere
It ain't a lot
But it's all you got
It ain't a lot
But it's all you got

On a street late at night time
Nothing matters if there's someone to blame
The nightmare becomes a reality
As the power goes to the insane

And beware the silent anger
If it's not there it's everywhere
Watch out for silent anger
If it's not there it's everywhere
It ain't a lot
But it's all you got
It ain't a lot
But it's all you got

And I know they like it
And I know they want it

When everything's over
And the years have passed right on by
And the people look back and wonder
How it could happen and why

So beware the silent anger
If it's not there it's everywhere
Watch out for silent anger
If it's not there it's everywhere
It ain't a lot
But it's all you got
It ain't a lot
But it's all you got
